Digital India – Student Field Work program

Date: July 4, 2018

Overview:

A field work program where students engaged in activities related to the "Digital India" initiative, possibly involving digital literacy promotion or data collection in the community

Outcome:

Fostered civic engagement and provided practical experience in promoting digital literacy and government initiatives at the grassroots level.