

Guest Talk on Evolution of Generative AI

Date: October 4, 2024

Overview:

A session featuring an expert speaker discussing the historical development, current state, and future implications of generative artificial intelligence across various domains.

Outcome:

Increased awareness and understanding among students and faculty about cutting-edge AI technologies, fostering curiosity, and potentially inspiring research or project work in the field of generative AI.