Training on using ICT model – Google Classroom

Date: July 12, 2021

Overview:

This training session provided practical guidance on utilizing Google Classroom as an effective online learning management system for teaching, assigning tasks, and facilitating communication.

Outcome:

Enhanced digital teaching capabilities, enabling educators to seamlessly conduct online classes, manage assignments, and maintain communication with students, especially during remote learning periods.